DESPERADOES AND MILITIAMEN FIGHT

Pitched Battle Near Middlesboro---The Balls Escaped---Quieter Now.

Middlesboro, Ky., Nov. 6.—Following a month of fear and anxiety, resulting from conditions which resemble somewhat those which prevailed in Breathitt county recently, the mountain sides above Middlesboro and Pineville last night echoed to volleys from rifles of militia and possumen on one side and the Ball brothers on the other. The climax came yesterday, when the first attempt was made to arrest Frank Ball for killing Jack Bolen of this city a month ago. No direct news has come from the scene of action—a shack to the right of the road running through Cumberland Gap and about two miles from Middlesboro—but there are well-defined reports that Shelby Ball, the leader of the Ball brothers' faction, was wounded, and that two members of this combined force of possumen and militia were also wounded.

The trouble had its origin a month ago when Frank Ball killed Jack Bolen, a barber of Middlesboro. He fled into Lee county, Va., where his father, J. B. Ball, is sheriff, but it is alleged soon returned and has since been going about this (Bell) county openly and apparently without fear of arrest.

The hunt for the Balls and their partisans is continuing in the neighborhood of a blind tiger, which it is alleged they have been conducting in Cumberland Gap, but definite reports as to the outcome have not been received. Volleys have been plainly heard by the people on the streets of Middlesboro.

The partisans of the Balls are reported to number forty, all well armed and determined to resist arrest.

On Saturday night Middlesboro was practically placed under martial law. The local militia was called into service and each member given 50 rounds of ammunition, with instructions to use it in the defense of their own bodies, their friends and families, to protect property and preserve peace within the limits of the city. Each member was cautioned not to act hastily, but to exercise cool judgment and not fire without provocation.

Capt. George W. Albrecht divided his company into three squads and they were assigned to do patrol work all night. One squad was stationed at the L. and N. and Southern passenger depot, one at the L. and N. freight office and one at the Cumberland hotel.

Pickets were stationed on the roadway where the mountain men were expected to come and repeat their lawless acts of the previous night. There was no demonstration within the city limits, but at times a great amount of shooting occurred in the outskirts.

All suspicious looking people who were seen by the pickets were halted and an explanation of their movements demanded. There were no demonstrations on the part of men in sympathy with the outlaws.

Capt. Albrecht placed his company at the disposal of Sheriff Tyrus Howard, and he was expected to summon a posse of armed citizens to co-operate with the militia in attempting to locate Frank Ball, but he refused to act and notified the county authorities that he would resign. Bell county is without a sheriff. Deputy sheriffs and local officers appear to be utterly powerless to handle the situation.

The military company will do patrol duty and as there are only 40 men, mostly inexperienced in the company, relief will be needed in a few hours.

Saturday business was paralyzed and merchants say it was the dulllest day in the history of their business.

ness. What will be done by Circuit Judge Moss cannot be learned. The people of Cumberland Gap, Tenn., are terrorized as the band of desperadoes have made several visits to the town and the people of Middlesboro are hoping that the Tennessee authorities will also take the matter in hand.

To send the local company of 40 men against these desperadoes would be out of the question as they are supposed to number 20 men of the most desperate character, and are determined to resist any move on the part of the militia. Richard Bohannon, the local Western Union manager, was openly warned to discontinue sending press matter about the situation.

Men, women and children are afraid to express an opinion, and it is almost impossible to get unfixed action upon the part of citizens. The crisis must be reached soon, as a desperate condition exists, and the people of the town are becoming terrorized.

With the exception of a continual patrolling of the streets by deputy sheriffs and the militia, Middlesboro today shows little effect of the strenuous hours of yesterday. Business is practically paralyzed and streets in the business portions of the city practically deserted. Opinions as to whereabouts of Ball brothers differ widely, although it is generally believed that J. Frank Ball has left the country. Huston Ball, his brother, who is one of the best known business men of Middlesboro, is confident he has escaped and is also sure Shelby Ball was not injured in yesterday's conflict.

Keg house is now owned by Lee Turner, of Quarter house fame, and it is said that Ball's friends use it as headquarters.

For the first time in several days not a shot was fired last night.

As a result of yesterday's march in the gap depredations upon travelers and residents have been suspended and no holdups reported since last Saturday.

THE STARVING POOR.

Send a Delegation to Appear to the Government.

London, Nov. 6.—Six thousand women rescued from the slums are preparing to march through the city this afternoon to White Hall, where a deputation of eighteen of their number will be received by Premier Balfour, and press a demand for immediate relief for the government for the starving poor.

The women who called on Balfour were greatly dissatisfied with his speech. They declare it is apparent the government has no intention of trying to help the starving people and openly state that England may see scenes that rival those of Russia.

MRS. MARY QUINN.

Died at Her Home in Mayfield From Paralysis.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Mary L. Quinn, wife of J. M. Quinn, a prominent insurance man, and sister of Tom J. Landrum, died last night at 6:30 o'clock, from a paralytic stroke she suffered two years ago.

SERGEANT ASSASSINATED.

No One Witnessed the Shooting of the Officer.

Junction City, Kansas, Nov. 6.—Sergeant Richard Lee, of the Ninth cavalry, was assassinated yesterday. No one witnessed the shooting.

$15,000 VERDICT GIVEN MRS. HEAD

Jury Decided Big Damage Suit Against Cheatham Hodge.

The Widow Sued Him For $20,000 Damages and the Jury Brought In Verdict Early Today.

NEW TRIAL TO BE ASKED FOR.

The jury in the case of Mrs. M. E. Head against Cheatham Hodge for $20,000 damages for alleged responsibility for the death of her husband, Pink Head, this morning brought in a verdict for $15,000 damages, one of the largest verdicts in the history of McCracken county.

The case consumed two days of court last week, and was given to the jury this morning at 8:30 o'clock. The jury retired and after being out one hour and a half returned into court the verdict for $15,000. The widow asked $20,000 damages.

The case developed some startling testimony. There were about 30 witnesses here for the defense and Hodge employed to defend him seven attorneys. The plaintiff had three. The petition alleged that Hodge shot or was responsible for the shooting of Head, who was killed on the night of September 28th, 1903, while he stood on his back porch. Mrs. Head testified that she saw a man who resembled Hodge escaping after the shooting and introduced two witnesses who stated that Hodge had told them that "he had put Head away," and "if they did not keep their faces around about it, he would treat them likewise."

Hodge tried to prove an alibi and had about 30 witnesses on his side. The facts of the killing briefly stated are as follows:

Some one in the vicinity of Clinton where Hodge and Head had adjoining farms had been burning barns and committing vandalism of the worst sort. Hodge's barn burned and Head was suspected by Hodge, and the evidence showed that Hodge and his brother Bob went out one night to lay in wait for the incendiary.

They did not watch together, but apart, and when Bob Hodge came towards the other he was mistaken for the incendiary and was shot and killed. That was one version. The other was that Hodge and his brother went to kill Head and carried a chicken to attract him out of the house, thinking that he would believe some one was after his chickens and come out. The chicken got away and Robert Hodge, according to that version, went in pursuit and in circulating about was mistaken by his brother for Head and killed. Later Head himself was killed. Hodge moved to Paducah a short time ago.

The suit was ably fought on both sides, and it was said by many attorneys Saturday after the evidence was complete that they never saw a closer case, there being about as much evidence one way as another.

A new trial will be asked, and an appeal taken in event it is refused.

The attorneys in the case are: Attorneys Thos. Shelbourne, Bardwell, R. L. Smith, Clinton and Englewood Graves, city, for the plaintiff; Gus Thomas, J. E. Robbins, Sam Crossland, Mayfield, and Hendrick, Miller and Marble of the city.

This jury in the case was made up of the following gentlemen of both city and county: George Lehard James King, W. M. Carnen, G. H. Smith, C. W. Vance, J. D. Tucker, W. J. Whitehead, R. S. Wilson, C. T. Chamberlain, J. M. Simmons, James Augustus and Tom Meyers.

Wouldn't Stand For $2.

Manager Thomas Roberts, of the Kentucky, refused to permit "The Winning Girl" management to boost up the price to $2 in Paducah. The company opens in Chicago next week at $2, and an effort was today made to fix the price here of the best seats at $2, but Manager Roberts declined to allow it and as a result the seats will be the usual price, and will go on sale tomorrow.

Quiet at Helsingfors.

A PROMINENT OFFICIAL SPEAKS

Odessa, Nov. 6.—Everything is quiet today. Shops are opening, business is resuming, and the city is fast assuming a normal aspect. Vessels are being loaded expeditiously.

Mob Charged by Troops.

Tamsk, Siberia, Nov. 6.—A mob pillaged Jewish houses and was charged by troops with bayonets today. Several were killed and wounded, and half the houses in the city were sacked.

50,000 At Demonstration.

Vienna, Nov. 6.—The immense Socialist suffrage demonstration on the Ringstrasse yesterday was attended by 50,000 persons. A strong force of gendarmes was stationed along the streets but did not interfere with the demonstration and Socialists, many of whom were armed, even permitting them to hoist red flags over Reichsrath building. There was no disorder whatever but many similar demonstrations.

More About the Riots.

London, Nov. 6.—The Odessa correspondent of the standard under the date of November 5, 5 p. m., sends further sensational accounts of the riots there. He says:

"There have been more horrifying massacres and fiendish cruelties but the districts where these took place are now cordoned by troops. Probably the total killed will number 3,500 and wounded 12,000. In the suburb of Moldovanka alone a thousand victims remained in the streets from midnight until noon, when the authorities hastened to collect and bury the bodies in order to conceal the numbers.

Two private doctors attended more than 300 children of both sexes who had been horribly gashed about the head and shoulders with sabres.

"Hooping insult on injury the civil governor today when the butchery had ended, asked the house holders to subscribe $100,000, to pay the police increased wages."

Indescribable horrors are being witnessed today.

Massacre and pillage of the Jews continue at Kishineff.

Russia Responsible.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—Your correspondent today interviewed a prominent liberal official who said, "Attempts to fasten the blame for the past week's anti-Jewish massacres on the bureaucracy and rough element of the towns where the murders were committed has been unsuccessful and the whole Russian nation must shoulder the responsibility, because public sentiment favored the massacre, or at least regarded them with indifference." The Jews cannot hope to gain freedom under a liberal Russian government unless they fight for it just as the liberals are fighting antitocracy for their own liberty."

Mob Fired On By Cossacks.

Berlin, Nov. 6.—The Klein and Journal says that several were killed at Jeddesevograd, Russia, yesterday through the firing on a mob by Cossacks. Many panics were caused by the burning of buildings.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS COMES OFF TOMORROW

The Republicans Have Every Assurance of Success in City and County

The regular election takes place tomorrow, and it is likely that more interest will be manifested at the polls than many expect.

The city of Paducah is to elect a police judge for four years, and five aldermen, eight councilmen, and seven school trustees for two years. The county is to elect a judge, clerk of the county and circuit courts, sheriff, county attorney, jailer, assessor, surveyor, county school superintendent, representative and senator.

A vote is to be taken on whether or not to permit hogs to run at large in the county outside of the city, or in the city, too, for that matter, although there is already in force a hog ordinance.

The county and city, along with all others in the state, are to vote on the constitutional amendment, which amendment is desired by the Democratic politicians to prevent Democrats and others from voting as they please in the future, and force those Democrats who now vote independently, to come back with the gang, or lose caste.

McCracken county has usually been Democratic and Paducah has frequently been Republican, but conditions this year are different from those of any other, and big surprises may be in store for the Democrats.

There is Democratic disaffection in both city and county, but to what extent it will manifest itself tomorrow, remains to be seen. The Republicans expect to elect county and city tickets. They have put up good men for all the offices, and have assurance from many Democrats that the Republican tickets will receive the support of hundreds of Democrats, who have perceived the way things are drifting in city and county affairs, and desire a change.

Republicans should not be deceived or discouraged by the blatant boasts of the Democratic politicians and their henchmen, but should go to the polls early, cast their vote for the Republican tickets and against the constitutional amendment, and they will then know that they have done their duty. Go early and vote early.

THE DUTIES OF ELECTION OFFICERS.

The following information, based on the statutes, should be read by every election officer and voter in the city and county:

I.—CHANGE OF LOCATION OF POLLS.

It is unlawful to change or attempt to change the polling place until on the morning of the election, and then it can only be done if for a good cause the election cannot be held at the place appointed, and only when the JUDGES representing the OPPOSING parties concur in doing so, and then the duty rests upon them of announcing the place to which the change has been made, and posting notice of the change at the door of the place from which the change is made. A severe penalty is denounced under the statute for any change made otherwise than as here stated.

II.—CHALLENGERS AND INSPECTORS.

A challenger from each party—Democratic, Republican and Prohibition—is entitled to enter the polls and remain in the voting place during the time the votes are cast, if he presents a certificate of appointment in writing, signed by the chairman of the county or other local committee of his political party.

An inspector is entitled to enter the voting place at the close of voting, and before counting begins, and he must be admitted in such place if he has his credentials from the county executive committee of his political party. IT IS NOT NECESSARY FOR A CHALLENGER OR INSPECTOR TO LIVE IN THE PRECINCT. They come as the representatives of their respective parties, and any one whose certificate of appointment is signed as above indicated has a right to come and perform the duties assigned to him.

If any election officer should refuse to permit a challenger or inspector of any regular political party having a ticket to be voted for at the election, and who has been duly appointed and presents the certificate of his appointment, duly attested, to perform his duty as challenger or inspector, as the case may be, he is subject to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500.

III.—ELECTION OFFICERS.

If any election officer fails to appear at the voting place for thirty minutes after 6 o'clock, then the OTHER officer of the SAME POLITICAL AFFILIATION with the absentee has the right to appoint a person to act in his stead. IN THIS APPOINTMENT THE OFFICERS REPRESENTING THE OTHER PARTY HAVE NO VOICE. If two of the officers of one party fail to attend for thirty minutes after 6 o'clock, then it is the duty of the other officers to notify the voters then assembled of the same political affiliation with the absent officers, to fill the places of the two absent officers. This vote must be confined to those of the same political affiliation with the absent officers.

IV.—DUTIES BEFORE VOTING BEGINS.

It is the duty of the officers of election, in the presence of the challenger of each party, if present, to OPEN THE BOX BEFORE THE VOTING BEGINS AND SEE TO IT THAT THERE ARE NO BALLOTS IN THE BOX BEFORE THE POLLS ARE OPEN. It is also proper for them to examine the ballot book and see that no ballots are taken therefrom, and if any have been taken therefrom, to make a note of the number on the main stub from which the ballot was taken.

V.—DUTIES AT CLOSE OF COUNT

At 4 o'clock the receiving of votes should cease; then an inspector for each party should be permitted to enter; or, if the challenger is also the inspector, and presents his credentials as such, he should be permitted to remain. The counting should at once begin and continue until finished, and at the close of the count one of the judges SHOULD ANNOUNCE THE RESULT IN A LOUD, DISTINCT VOICE AT THE DOOR OF THE POLLING PLACE.

As soon as the count is completed, the form of certificate which appears on the inside of the cover of the stub book should be filled out, and should be signed by all the officers of election. The Inspector has the right to demand from the officers a duplicate certificate, signed in like manner, AND IT SHOULD BE GIVEN, if the demand is made, and each judge should retain another duplicate and sufficient blank certificates should be furnished by the clerk to enable a compliance with this provision of the law.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORMS.

The following are the platforms or pledges adopted at the Republican conventions for Paducah and McCracken county held last month:

CITY.

We, your committee, beg leave to report the following resolutions:

1st. We reaffirm our allegiance in the Republican principles and heartily endorse the actions of our Honorable President Theodore Roosevelt, believing him to be one of the truest as well as greatest statesmen of any age.

2d. We hail with pleasure the evidence in our city of an aroused public feeling, irrespective of party affiliation, to give the people a clean and honest local administration. We believe that the highest aim of all good citizens is due primarily to the local community in which they live, and looking to that end, we invite all good citizens to vote with us in our effort to give to this community an administration that will be economical in all things, reduce our taxation, extend all public utilities, and in every instance have the interests of the people supreme.

3rd. We are heartily in favor of improving the sanitary condition of

Theatrical Notes

THE KENTUCKY.

Monday and Tuesday evenings with special matinee Tuesday afternoon.

The Jule Foreman Musical Comedy company in "Cinderella."

Wednesday evening: Frank L. Perley's production of Doty & Perley's new musical comedy success, "The Winning Girl," direct from the Garrick theater, St. Louis.

Blanche Deyo, a member of the company which will present "The Winning Girl," Frank L. Perley's latest musical play at The Kentucky although hardly out of her teens is an extensive traveler. To this young girl belongs the distinction of having been the first American woman to have made the journey from St. Petersburg via the Trans-Siberian railway to Vladivostok. Miss Deyo was then en route to the English possessions in East India, and chose this way in preference to going around by way of Suez. Six times in the space of three years, she covered the distance between Johannesburg, South Africa and Moscow, Russia. Because of the lucrative returns she received from dancing, Miss Deyo took up this branch of the profession, and it has called her to the four ends of the earth. Miss Deyo speaks twelve tongues fluently, as a result of her travels. In consequence of her observations of the dances peculiar to the different countries she has visited, the dance she has created an act which she styles "the dances of all nations," and which has been incorporated in "The Winning Girl," and is one of the hits of the piece.

Cinderella is Here.

The Cinderella company arrived yesterday and spent Sunday here. Tonight a performance will be given at the Kentucky theatre, also tomorrow afternoon and night. The company is quite large, larger than they claim, which is something unusual. The managers claim that they will give satisfaction. That if they didn't, have the show to do it they couldn't play three times in a day this size.

Best Liniment on Earth.

Henry D. Baldwin, Supt. City Water Works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes:

NOBODY IS EXEMPT.

A New Preparation Which Everyone
Will Need Sooner or Later.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which, in many cases, are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good.

Purging is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help, and you will have no trouble.

It's a common-sense medicine and a common-sense treatment, and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—Mrs. E. M. Faith, of Byrd's Creek, Wis., says:

"I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says: "Mr. White, of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia, from which he suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your Dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia, but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50c to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

Messrs. H. C. Rhodes and H. S. Wells, of the Commercial club, leave in a day or two for New York and Chicago respectively on business.

NEW MONEY ORDERS

DEPARTMENT HAS SENT OUT
NOTICE OF THEIR ADOPTION.

They Will Contain Name of Sender of the Money, As Well As One Payable to.

Postmaster F. M. Fisher today received from Washington notice of a new form of money order which has just been adopted by the department and will be inaugurated November 15. It will have only two important changes. One will be that the money order after that date contains the name of the person who sends the money, as well as that of the person it is to be paid to, thus greatly conveniencing merchants and others who often through inadvertence get money orders with nothing to show who sent them. The other change will be that of having the amount torn off on the edge in such a way that it will be impossible to raise an order.

Raised money orders have caused a great deal of fraud and trouble in the past, although (the department never loses anything).

The new money order is expected to be a great improvement over the old.

WE MUST MOVE

As our lease on the building which we now occupy will soon expire and the building has been leased to another company, it is imperative that we at once dispose of our stock. Though the volume of business in both the wholesale and retail departments has been tremendous during this sale we still have the largest and choicest stock of Glassware, Queensware and Bric-a-Brac in West Kentucky and we are going to make a vigorous effort to dispose of it in its entirety in the next two weeks.

This is an opportunity to buy Christmas presents at small cost which you can ill afford to miss. Our wholesale department enabled us to buy large quantities at the lowest market prices. If we used this whole paper we could not tell you of all the bargains we are offering, for every piece in the store is to be sold at exactly what it costs us.

Every day or two now we are going to offer you something at an unusually low price

LANGSTAFF FIRM LOSES ITS SAW MILL

Burned Sunday Morning, Loss
$30,000, $15,000 Insurance.

About 80 Men Out of Work—Planing Mill Is to Be Started at Once.

MOST OF CO.'S PLANT SAVED

It is an old tradition among fire fighters that fires come in threes. In fact, disasters of all descriptions are said to come in threes, and Paducah has just rounded out another series of three conflagrations.

The Cooperage Company, Union Central Hotel and Langstaff mill suffered destructive blazes within three days. The Langstaff company suffered a loss of perhaps $30,000 by fire Sunday morning about 1 o'clock. Its sawmill at Second and Adams, which was built about forty years ago, was totally destroyed by a fire which seemed to have started under a derick used for hoisting logs to the saw carriages. Watchman Jake Rouse, while making his rounds, discovered the blaze and after sending in an alarm and blowing the whistle, did what he could to extinguish the flames with the company hose, but it had gained too much headway, and quickly spread. The saw department, with its fine machinery, and the boiler and engine rooms, were burned, but the wind was blowing in such a way that the planing mill and other departments of the big concern were saved. The rain also helped save the plant, as it had dampened the lumber piles, and the big sparks fell harmlessly on them while the saw mill was burning.

The five departments under Chief James Wood and his captains, usually did splendid work, although all they could do was to prevent the blaze from spreading to other parts of the plant. The bridge from the saw mill to the storage department was burned and the big water tank caught fire but was only slightly damaged.

It is the first time the Langstaff company in its forty years of successful existence ever had a fire serious enough to report to the insurance companies. The building that burned was built forty-five years ago by the late George Langstaff, Sam Langstaff and John Orme, and was equipped with the best machinery, with a capacity of 75,000 and 100,000 feet of sawed lumber a day. About 175 men were employed in that department.

Mr. George Langstaff stated this morning that he did not know whether the saw mill would be rebuilt or not but that the probability is that it will be put back at once. He said that the board of directors would have to hold a meeting and decide this question. If this department is not rebuilt it will necessitate the closing down of the planing mill in a short time, as all the lumber used in the planing mill is first sawed in the saw mill.

Today the planing mill was connected with the engine room and it will probably be started in the morning. The engines and boilers were not damaged. A roof will have to be put over them, however. Mr. Langstaff said they were very fortunate in keeping the large smokestack from falling. It had gone down the planing mill could not have been started for sometime.

By the burning of the sawmill about eighty men are thrown out of work and it comes at a bad time, just before the holidays. Mr. Langstaff said if they rebuild that it will be impossible to get started before April 1. The machinery is ruined and will have to go to the scrap pile.

At present the company has considerable sawed lumber in its yards

Street Car Improvements.
City Engineer L. A. Washington has given the street car people the grade for its tracks on Kentucky avenue and the work of laying the track will begin at once. The Traction company intends to push all improvements and has let the foundation work to Thos. Bridges Sons. The Street Car company will also put in new overhead work on this street, and is putting in a new turn at 12th and Clay streets. Tracks are being repaired and the service improved as fast as possible.

Heating Plant Being Remodeled.
Mr. Clarence Knowles, superintendent of water supply of the Louisville division of the I. C., began work this morning remodeling the steam heating plant of the round house. The piping will be taken out and larger pipes put in. This improvement was ordered some time ago but on account of other improvements coming first, had been neglected.

Daily Thought.

We are never so ridiculous by the qualities we have as by those we affect to have.—Hochefoucauld.

A LAST WORD TO THE VOTER.

A last word to the voters. Go to the polls tomorrow and vote for the best men. You know what the men who compose the democratic tickets have done or failed to do, and that they have promised to do no better. You know what the men on the republican tickets have promised to do, and if you know the men you also know that they can do it, and will do it if elected.

In the county you are to elect men who will have the welfare and prosperity of the people in their hands for four years. Are they all to be trusted?

In the city you have a number of men who have demonstrated time after time their inability to manage the affairs of the city. The men you are to vote for tomorrow in the city will serve for two years. As a majority of the boards is to be elected, they will hold your interests in their hands for two years. They will continue to give you a high tax rate, and an administration fraught with mismanagement, incompetence, and extravagance. Do you want it? Do you want to be taxed to the limit without proportionate benefit? Do you want a crowd in public office that pays out the thousands of dollars you contribute annually to the support of the government. In such a way that their friends and relatives get the benefit of most of it, to the detriment of the people?

If you do not, you must vote against them. The men on the republican tickets promise you a reduction of at least fifty cents on the $1.00, which means that a man paying taxes on an assessment of $1,000 will have to pay $5 taxes less than now, and will get as many comforts, conveniences and benefits as now. No good citizen should hesitate. The issue is not one of politics, but of good government and municipal progress. Do not be driven like sheep to stamp under any party emblem regardless of the men under that emblem. This has been a year of reform, exposure of graft and destruction of corrupt political machines. Get busy at home, for if the crowd is not defeated now, it will be installed in power for another two years. It will mean two years more of exorbitant taxes and municipal mismanagement, two years more of wastefulness.

We appeal to voters irrespective of politics to help rescue the city from another two years of incompetent administration, marked by a wanton waste of public money, costly delay in everything undertaken, and a system of petty graft that cannot be easily perceived by the public because it is kept well under cover, but which can be felt by every tax payer in the city.

GOV. FOLK'S MISTAKE.

Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, has won the admiration of the country by his fearless devotion to duty. But after all, he seems to have mixed politics with his reform. He has been gallivanting about lately speaking against corrupt political machines, but he took care not to speak against any of those labeled democratic. A corrupt machine should be destroyed no matter what politics the men composing it profess. But Gov. Folk, in making his choice, has held himself open to criticism if not suspicion.

The Washington Star, independent, says on the subject:

"There seems good reason to fear that Gov. Folk is mixing his reform with politics. It is not a welcome sign for he is a man of ability and has made a fine impression on the country."

"The Star recently called attention to the declaration of Gov. Folk to visit New York and speak for Mr. Jerome. He had just been to Philadelphia to assist in the warfare against a corrupt republican machine, and there was a desire that he come to Gotham and say a word for reform there, in approval of the warfare against a corrupt democratic machine. But he was too busy, and responded to a telegram from Jefferson City so colorless that Tammany must have felt very much obliged for it."

"The pressure of business in Missouri has eased up, however, and Gov. Folk is now in Ohio fighting another republican machine. George B. Cox, the republican boss of Cincinnati, is a prominent figure in the Buckeye contest, and Gov. Folk is on the ground helping along the fight to unhorse him and see Cincinnati under the rule of Cox's no worse than New York under the rule of Murphy. The two men indeed are described as much alike in temperament and methods. Each is at the head of an organization which when in power preys upon the town, and each, from very humble beginnings and in a very short time, has come to great wealth and influence. Gov. Folk finds the time to go against Cox, but has not a minute to spare to go squarely against Murphy."

"From Cincinnati to Louisville is a run of only four hours by fast train."

and in the Kentucky city a democratic machine is under as warm a fire as is the Cox republican machine. A leader of the Louisville bar, a democrat, is leading the fight against the machine. But Gov. Folk is not billed for a speech there. A blast upon his Missouri horn would count.

"Gov. Folk has said—and it is one of his most striking deliverances—that boss rule should be fought wherever found. It causes both parties and must be eradicated from both if our politics is to show a cleaner side. This year bosses are the issue and everybody is aroused. And yet when the campaign is over Gov. Folk's record in this anti-boss crusade will find he found time to fight only bosses of the republican breed. Ah, that little presidential bee. How it buzzes, buzzes, buzzes."

"The evils ensue will not be taken up again until after the election," one of the gang stated. "He has influence, you know." So that's the game! Are the people going to stand for it? If the case had been taken up and tried as it should have been as soon as the injunction was dissolved in circuit court several weeks ago, it would have been embarrassing to those members of the board of aldermen who are running for re-election. If they had exonerated the city jailer, they would have run the risk of incurring the opposition of those who want to see justice done. If they had convicted him, they would have lost the support of the city jailer's friends. They would have missed his "influence." The city jailer therefore has a good chance to get out and work for those who are to try his case. If he does well, who can tell what might happen? What do the people think about such an administration of affairs?

Remember those $1.85 cent tax rates, and the $1.65 tax rate. Do the property owners want any more of it? Do the poor people who have to rent, want to have to pay these high taxes in increased rent, increased cost of water, light, food and everything else? The heavy tax payers have to make up the excessive taxes they have to pay. They do it by raising rents and such things. The grocer, the coal man, the baker, the butcher and everyone else raises prices to pay the high taxes and the high licenses that have been forced on the people of Paducah in order that the present administration could have thousands of dollars to squander in various ways, but always in such a way that some friend of the crowd gets the benefit of it. Do you want any more of it?

The Republicans and other good people of Paducah do not want to win the election tomorrow or any other time, except in a fair, honorable way. They expect to win tomorrow despite the reports that a number of Democrats have been buying up Republican registration certificates. We trust this report is untrue, and that no election certificates have been bought, because if they have and it is found out, which it is likely to be, there will be prosecutions against all caught up with.

Voting for the party, and not for the man, has been the curse of American cities and counties. The revolt has come. Let voters of Paducah join the procession and show the partisans that something is necessary besides having the nomination of a party. Vote for the protection of your home and release from burdensome taxation this time and see how the change will benefit you.

Remember the scandals in the county. The state inspector showed up the crowd, but the affair ended there. Nothing was done to those accused, and no official pushed the charges. Do the people of McCracken county think for a moment that the grand jury could not be forced to take these matters up whether it has been "fixed" or not? If it was not forced to take them up, whose fault was it?

Don't forget the report of Judge Hines regarding the way your affairs in this county have been conducted, when you go to the polls tomorrow. His investigation proved things were worse than even the most pessimistic expected, and the investigation was called off for fear of worse exposures than had been brought to light.

This is "fusion" year. All over the state fusion tickets are in the field to strike terror to the hearts of the Democrats. In Paducah and McCracken county there are straight tickets, but hundreds of Democrats are going to the polls and vote the Republican ticket.

Mr. Head says he has a job in Frankfort. Maybe he won't have it.

IN THE COURTS

Circuit Court.

At press time this afternoon the case of Geo. C. Wallace against E. W. Berry was on trial. Wallace owned a fine horse which broke its leg. He sent the horse away by a negro with instructions to kill it. The negro gave the horse to Mr. Berry who doctored him and cured him. Mr. Wallace saw the horse later and brought suit to recover him. Mr. Berry came in with a counter claim asking for several hundred dollars for keeping the animal, for doctoring him, etc. Attorneys were speaking at press time.

In the case of G. T. Renick, guardian, against the Mutual Life Insurance Co. and others, a judgment for $1,000 was filed against Newson Simpson, one of the defendants.

E. K. Bonds and Ode Overstreet were excused as petit jurors and H. A. Petter and James Koger substituted.

The case of Thomson, administrator, against the I. C. road, was continued.

The case of Will Dallas against the Western Union Telegraph Co. was continued.

The case of Mrs. Fannie M. Kennedy against the Western Union Telegraph Co. was dismissed without prejudice.

The case of the T. A. Snider Prerequisite Co. against O. L. Gregory, was dismissed without prejudice.

Suits Filed Today.

Two suits were filed in circuit court today. They are J. T. Polk & Co. against Paducah Packing Co. for $2,000 damages. The latter claims that the plaintiff furnished ant broke the contract, thereby damaging the plaintiff's business to the extent of the above amount.

The second is a suit of the Ayer & Lord Tie Co. against Sheriff Les. D. Potter to restrain him from collecting $390 taxes on $30,000 worth boats. The assessment was made at the regular time and later the boats added. The plaintiff alleges that taxes are paid in the home port and that the boats can not be retaxed here.

Quarterly Court.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot today held quarterly court but transacted little business, a few judgments in small cases being filed.

To Forfeit Bond.

Papers have been served here on H. B. Duncan, in jail for alleged passing counterfeit money, in a suit filed against him in federal court to forfeit his $500 bond, which he jumped last year, and was later captured in Los Angeles, Cal. Duncan's trial comes up Nov. 20 in federal court here.

Goes to Frankfort Tomorrow.

Attorney James Campbell, city solicitor, will go to Frankfort tomorrow on several matters pertaining to city business. He will take the decision of Judge Reed on the validity of city ordinances, which decided the street contracts, to Frankfort to place the matter in the court of appeals and urge its immediate settlement. He will also have other city matters attended to. He intended going today, but was delayed.

Alleged Housebreaking

RELIEF PROMISED
WESTERN SHIPPERSThe Rate Row Seems Now to be Near an End.Acquisition of the Tennessee Central
By the I. C. Expected to Do the Work.

A CHICAGO PAPER'S VIEW

Settlement of the much talked about southeastern rate question promises to be brought about through the acquisition by the Illinois Central and Southern railroad of the Tennessee Central and the establishment of through service by the Illinois Central between Chicago, St. Louis and southeastern points, says the Chicago Tribune. There are certain signs that relief is coming to the middle west, which will counteract the discrimination, which has been in effect for more than twenty years in favor of the eastern shippers to the southeastern territory.

It was announced recently from Nashville, during the visit of President Fish and several of the directors of the Illinois Central to that city, that they had secured an option for three years to purchase the Tennessee Central, and that the stock had been deposited in escrow in New York. Pending the consummation of this deal, the announcement was that the Southern railroad and the Illinois Central jointly would operate the Tennessee Central, it being divided into two parts for that purpose. The Tennessee Central is owned by a St. Louis syndicate, of which J. C. Van Vleet is the head, and it is safe to assume that some sort of an understanding, promising relief, was had before the option for sale was given.

Yesterday the announcement was made by Illinois Central officials that within a short time they would establish a through service to points in the southeast, within 200 miles of Atlanta. It has become known that they will build a line from Jackson, Tenn., to Birmingham, Ala., by the way of Corinth, a distance of 200 miles. The Illinois Central then will have direct entrance into Nashville and Birmingham, and will be in a position to dictate what the rates shall be from middle western points. The through service which they are to establish will include both passenger and freight.

Committees representing the various grain exchanges at Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, Memphis, Evansville and other centers are at work with the traffic managers of various Ohio river lines upon an agreement to equalize the grain rates to the southeast, and to abolish certain discriminations which are said to exist.

Saved By Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamiting would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep and finally 'cured her.' Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and la grippe. At W. B. McPherson's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Another Big Coal Deal.

Sturgis, Ky., Nov. 6.—Supt. R. S. Weltzel, of the Bell-Union mines, at Owens, is reported to have bought all the holdings of Col. J. L. Frankel at and near Sturgis, which deal is second only to the great North American "swipe" of a few months ago. Mr. Weltzel declined to give the price. Frankel's holdings were large and valuable, and the price will be far under the one received by him for his former plant, $400,000.

The West Kentucky Coal company has closed the contract for their houses and work will be commenced in a few days.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Alvey & List.

Mistaken For Burglar.

Central City, Ky., Nov. 6.—Tom Middleton, single, aged forty years, was killed by Tom Sweeney, postmaster at Hereb, Muhlenberg county. Middleton was visiting Sweeney, and went into the yard before day. Returning, he was mistaken for a burglar and was shot and instantly killed.

BOARD OF WORKS

MAY HOLD SPECIAL SESSION TO-
MORROW AFTERNOON.If the Council Does Not Meet Tonight
However, Meeting May Be Unnecessary.

A special session of the board of public works has been called for tomorrow afternoon to take action on some street matters that were to come up before the board of the general council tonight.

Owing to the democratic rally tonight the board of councilmen will meet and adjourn until a later date, probably Wednesday night, as most of the board desires to be at this rally, some of them being candidates for re-election.

Secretary S. A. Fowler stated that if the board did not transact any business tonight that the public works board would not meet tomorrow.

The South Third street improvement has not been completed on account of the failure of brick to arrive, one carload of brick was received this morning and it is expected that this thoroughfare will be completed in a few days. Evansville blocks are being used on this street, while the Metropolitan blocks are to be laid on Kentucky avenue. For some reason the Evansville concern has been slow in getting their blocks in here, but has promised to make a shipment every day now until all are received. As soon as the street is completed it will be received and thrown open all the way to Fourth and Broad streets. The east side of the street has been completed, but the west side is laid with blocks to Elizabeth street, leaving only a few blocks to finish. Secretary Fowler, of the board of public works, says that the South Third street work has been one of the best so far as completed that has been performed in the city.

POLICE COURT.

Two Prisoners Held to Grand Jury—
Other Cases Misdemeanors.

Frank James, colored, who years ago shot Gabe Fletcher, colored, with a pistol, was held over for malicious shooting this morning in police court and failing to give bond was committed to jail. He was recently caught in Tennessee.

Albert Howard, colored, who cut his wife, was held over for malicious cutting with intent to kill, and placed in jail in default of bond.

The case against Henry Cochran, colored, for the alleged theft of $35 from Wm. Finch white, was continued.

Other cases were: Tom Parker, Albert Harris, colored, drunkenness, $1 and costs each; Will Scott, white, drunk and disorderly, $20 and costs; Captain Tyler and Captain Koger, white breach of the peace, dismissed; Ednah Brown and Henry Davis, colored, immorality, continued; Henry Davis, colored, concealed weapons, continued; R. C. Aycock, E. O. Davis, white, breach of the peace, $5 and costs; Lucile Almond, drunk and disorderly, colored, $5 and costs; Lex Johnson, Robert Hall, Jim Scott, Geo. Birchett, colored, gaming, $20 and costs each; Ed Reed, colored, petty larceny, continued; Tom Catlett, colored, gaming continued.

To Petition Legislature.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 6.—Nineteen fraternal orders, to which insurance features are attached, were represented at the meeting held here Saturday. The meeting was taking steps against any adverse legislation in the next legislative session toward fraternal or assessment insurance. The meeting was held behind closed doors, and all that was given out was that an organization was effected to see that the interests of the different orders are fully protected. Thomas D. Osborne was elected president, Samuel Fritz secretary, and Jacob Fishback treasurer. The conference was adjourned to meet again November 18.

Prominent Madisonville Man Dead.

Madisonville, Ky., Nov. 6.—Mr. Chesley Williams, one of the oldest and most respected men of this city, died of stomach trouble. Mr. Williams had for a long time been interested in coal mining and was one of the largest property-holders in Madisonville. He leaves a wife, one son and one daughter.

Went to Turner's Lake.

Several men left on the Dick Fowler this morning for Turner's Lake to hunt and fish for ten or twelve days. In the party were: Mr. Abe Ansbacher, Mr. Clarence Brown, Mr. Dick Clements, Mr. Zack Cockerill, Mr. Tom Owen, Mr. Oscar Hank and Mr. J. D. Bacon. They took a camping outfit and a boat.

DARK DESPAIR

Is Turned Into Praise—Man, Once
Tired of Life, Relates a Remarkable
Story of Relief.

FEARED MANIAC'S FATE.

Almost willing to give up in despair because of pain and misery brought about by sickness, a well known man of this city says that he was saved from probable madness by heeding the advice of his friends.

Such was the story told by John Werner, who called yesterday at Smith & Nagel's drug store to give an account of his condition and his case was one of the kind that Payne said he is most pleased to hear.

Mr. Werner's story was as follows: "I have been troubled with stomach disorders for more than seven years and I also had terrible pains in my back and head. At times I suffered so that I feared I was going crazy. I was treated by physicians and I tried all the medicines I ever heard of, but nothing helped me, and instead I was growing worse.

"I lost all desire to live and could not work, eat or sleep with any degree of satisfaction. A friend urged me to call on Payne, but I felt as if it would avail me nothing. My family insisted that I should try Payne's remedies as a last resort and finally I called on him.

"He gave me encouragement and I tried the New Discovery medicine and the Quick Relief. I am thankful now that I did, for the results were astonishing. I never thought that medicine could act so quickly. I now feel like myself again, the pains have left me entirely. I eat and sleep well and I can do my work as well as any man. I heartily recommend Payne's remedies to any one afflicted as I was."

Payne's Remedies can be obtained at all hours at Smith & Nagel's, Fourth and Broadway.

BY HABITS OF LIVING—EVERY Girl Fatally Hurt.

Marion, Ky., Nov. 6.—During a game of ball engaged in by the boys of Chapel Hill public school, Miss Dolcie Clement, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Charles Clement, who lives five miles south of this city, was struck on the head with a bat and probably fatally injured. Miss Clement, with other girl pupils of the school, was standing near watching the progress of the game when the bat struck her knocking her to the ground unconscious.

Neuralgic Pains.

Rheumatism, lameness and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Bullard's Snow Liniment. (RICHARD GREAVES)

CHAPTER VII.
MRS. BREWSTER'S butler was surprised and annoyed. For the first time in his official career he had been so far as to manifest a personal interest in the welfare of his master. He was on the verge of assuming a responsibility which makes his servant intolerable. But after his interview he resolved that he would never again overstep his position. He made sure that it should be the last offense. The day following the dinner Rawles appeared before young Mr. Brewster and indicated by his manner that the call was an important one. Brewster was seated at his writing table, deep in thought. The exclamation that followed Rawles' cough of announcement was so sharp and so unmistakably fierce that all other evidence faded into insignificance. The butler's interruption came at a moment when Monty's mental arithmetic was pulling itself out of a very bad rut; and the cough drove it back into chaos.

"What is it?" he demanded irritably. Rawles had upset his calculations to the extent of seven or eight hundred dollars.

"I came to report to you an unfortunate condition among the servants, sir," said Rawles, stiffening as his responsibility became more and more weighty. He had relaxed temporarily upon entering the room.

"What's the trouble?"

"The trouble's headed, sir."

"Then why bother me about it?"

"I thought it would be well for you to know, sir. The servants was going to ask for better wages to-day, sir."

"You say they were going to ask for better wages to-day, sir? Aren't they?" And Monty's eyes lighted up at the thought of new possibilities.

"I convinced them, sir, as how they were getting good pay as it is, sir, and that they ought to be satisfied. They'd be a long time finding a better place and as good wages. They haven't been with you a week, and here they are striking for more pay. Really, sir, these American servants."

"Rawles, that'll do!" exploded Monty. The butler's chin went up, and his cheeks grew redder than ever.

"I beg pardon, sir," he gasped, with a respectful but injured air.

"Rawles, you will kindly not interfere in such matters again. It is not only the privilege but the duty of every American to strike for higher pay whenever he feels like it, and I want it distinctly understood that I am heartily in favor of their attitude. You will kindly go back and tell them that after a reasonable length of service their wages—I mean wages—shall be increased. And don't meddle again, Rawles."

Late that afternoon Brewster dropped in at Mrs. DeMille's to talk over plans for the next dinner. He realized that in no other way could he squander his money with a better chance of getting its worth than by throwing himself boldly into society. It went easily, and there could be only one asset arising from it in the end—his own sense of disgust.

"So glad to see you, Monty," greeted Mrs. Dan glowingly, coming in with a rush. "Come upstairs and I'll give you some tea and a cigarette. I'm not at home to anybody."

"That's very good of you, Mrs. Dan," said he as they mounted the stairs. "I don't know what I'd do without your help." He was thinking how pretty she was.

"You'd be richer, at any rate," turning to smile upon him from the upper landing. "I was in tears half the night, Monty, over that glass screen," she said after finding a comfortable place among the cushions of a divan. Brewster dropped into a rosy, lazy chair in front of her as he responded carelessly.

"It amounted to nothing. Of course it was very annoying that it should

The butler's chin went up, happen while the guests were still there." Then he added gravely: "In strict confidence, I had planned to have it fall just as we were pushing back our chairs, but the confounded thing disappointed me. These the trouble with these automobile engineers—they really hang fire. It was to have been a case of fall of Babylon effect, you know."

"Sigh!" But, like Babylon, it fell dismissed people about town, liberally approving the slanderer and denouncing the slanderers. A still busier quarter of an hour ensued when together they made up the list of dinner guests. He moved a little writing table up to the divan, and she looked on eagerly while he wrote down the names she suggested after many puckerings of her fair, aristocratic brow, and then drew lines through them when she changed her mind. Mrs. Dan DeMille handled her people without gloves in making up Monty's lists. The dinners were not hers, and she could afford to do as she pleased with his. He was broad and tall and she was not slow to see that he was indifferent. He did not care who the guests were or how they came; he merely wished to make sure of their presence. His only blunder was the rather dilapidated recommendation that Barbara Drew be asked again. If he observed that Mrs. Dan's head sank a little closer to the paper, he attached no importance to the movement. He could not see that her eyes grew narrow, and he paid no attention to the little catch in her breath.

"Wouldn't that be a little—just a little pronounced?" she asked, lightly enough.

"You mean—that people might talk?"

"She might feel conspicuously present."

"Do you think so? We are such good friends, you know."

"Of course if you'd like to have her," slowly and doubtfully, "why, put her name down. But you evidently haven't seen that." Mrs. Dan pointed to a copy of the Trumpet which lay on the table.

When he had handed her the paper she said, "The Censor is growing facetious at your expense."

"I am getting on in society with a vengeance if that ass starts in to write about me. Listen to this!"—she had pointed out to him the obnoxious paragraph: "If Brewster drew a diamond flush do you suppose he'd catch the queen? And if he caught her how long do you think she'd remain Drew? Or if she Drew Brewster would she be willing to learn such a game as Monte?"

The next morning a writer who signed himself The Censor got a thrashing, and one Montgomery Brewster had his name in the papers, surrounded by fulsome words of praise.

Terrific Race With Death.
"Death" was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at W. B. McPherson's drug store; price 50c.

BIG ORCHESTRA

Organized By Prof. Harry Gilbert Had Its Rehearsal Yesterday.

Paducah now has a big orchestra under the direction of Prof. Harry Gilbert, the well known musician. Prof. Gilbert first intended to organize a band, Yesterday eighteen musicians attended the rehearsal and several regular members of the new orchestra were unable to attend. There will be a total of about 25 members when the orchestra is complete.

Yesterday the instrumentation was as follows: Piano, double bass, cello, two lead and two second violins, two cornets, two horns, two clarinets, flute, piccolo and double drums. There will be a viola and trombone section added and a concert will be given within the next few weeks.

The meeting nights have been fixed for Thursday at the K. P. hall. Rehearsals are also held on Sunday afternoon.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death: J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound and saved his life. Best for the world for burns and sores. 25c at W. B. McPherson's drug store.

A Living Monument.

If we were to assemble all those who have been cured of heart disease by Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and who would to-day be in their graves had not Dr. Miles' been successful in perfecting this wonderful heart specific, they would populate a large city.

What a remarkable record—a breathing, thinking, moving monument, composed of human lives,—that for which every other earthly possession is sacrificed.

The Miles Medical Co. receive thousands of letters from these people like the following:

"I feel indebted to the Dr. Miles' Heart Cure for my life. I desire to call the attention of others suffering as I did to this remarkable remedy for the heart. For a long time I had suffered from shortness of breath after any little exertion, palpitation of the heart, and at times terrible pain in the region of the heart, so serious that I feared that I would some time drop dead upon the street. One day I read one of your circulars, and immediately went to my druggist and purchased two bottles of the Heart Cure, and took it according to directions, with the result that I am entirely cured. Since then I never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends who have heart trouble. In fact I am a traveling advertisement for I am widely known in this locality."

An Evansville paper says: "Capt. W. C. Lepper returned from St. Louis Saturday and announced that he had completed the deal for a wharfbat. The new wharf will arrive in Evansville the latter part of next week, and after a week's repairs will be ready for service. The boat is 252 feet long, 42 feet wide, has drive-ways and three gang planks. It is in fine condition, and the repairs needed are of a nature to accommodate it better to Evansville trade. The price of the new boat is given at $5,000."

For the first time in more than a third of a century, New Albany, Ind., is now at the head of navigation for the lower Ohio river, and will occupy that important position for ten days or two weeks, while repairs are being made to the middle locks of the canal. Until these repairs are completed steamboats will be compelled to discharge their trips at New Albany and reship their freight by rail, transferring their passengers to the suburban and interurban trains running between that city and Louisville. The canal was closed for the passage of steamboats Thursday at midnight, and no crafts have passed through since that hour.

NEW TEACHERS

WILL BE ELECTED BY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Regular Meeting to Be Postponed Until Wednesday On Account of Election.

The school board will not meet tomorrow night, the regular meeting night, on account of the election. The meeting has been postponed until Wednesday night when the election excitement will have passed over.

The board will have to fill two vacancies in the schools, the places of Misses Newell and Barnett. Miss Newell teaches at Washington building and Miss Barnett taught at the Washington. The committee has names to submit to the board and their recommendations will probably be concurred in.

Supt. Leih will read his regular monthly report. The attendance has been good and the work excellent. During the past month educators and other persons interested in the work have visited the schools and paid them high compliments, especially the High school department.

There will be other business of a routine nature to transact Wednesday.

Today The Ishloodah, the High school paper, made its appearance. This issue is especially interesting, having several excellent short stories by members of the High school.

A matter that will probably come up before the board Wednesday for action is that of bringing suit against the city of Paducah for a share of the back taxes and fines and forfeitures collected by the city during the past five years. Former City Clerk W. H. Patterson recently collected from the city records data showing that the city owed the board of education $15,000 or $18,000 on back taxes and fines, according to the board's construction of the law.

Constipation.
Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c a bottle. Alvey & List.

NEW BRIDGE

May Be Built Over the Ohio Near Owensboro.

Parties interested in the building of a railroad bridge across the Ohio river at Owensboro are in communication with a civil engineer, who will likely be engaged to make preliminary surveys. It is the plan to place the bridge as near Owensboro as possible, the idea of placing it at Iceland, near Rockport, having been practically abandoned. A point a short distance below Owensboro appears to be the most favorable.

Some think, says the Messenger, that a railroad line should be secured to the north bank of the river before the building of a bridge is attempted, but it seems to be the consensus of opinion that the Southern road will be there when the bridge is finished.

Cleared for Action.

CAPT. JOHN JAMES.

Well Known Former Ohio River Man

Accidentally Killed in Oklahoma.

Inhuma.

Capt. John James, a former resident of Owensboro, died at his home at Guthrie, Oklahoma, as the result of an accidental pistol shot wound.

His brother, Capt. Sam James, Jr., still lives in Owensboro. Capt. James was attempting to extract a cartridge from an old pistol, when it exploded and entered his abdomen.

John James was for a number of years engaged in steamboating on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and was connected at various times with several large boats. He was captain of the Mountain Boy when the catastrophe occurred which is the talk of Ohio river men until this day.

She was caught in a severe storm as she was steaming into port at Owensboro and in attempting to land she was capsized. Several of the crew were drowned. Several years ago Capt. James went to Oklahoma.

FAMILY CARES.

This Information May Be of Value to Many a Mother in Paducah.

When there is added to the many cares inseparable from the rearing of children that affliction of weakness of the kidneys and auxiliary organs the mother's lot is far from a happy one. This condition can be quickly changed and absolutely cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When this is known the mother's burden will be lighter and her home happier.

T. G. Elder, of 1801 Monroe street, carpenter at the Illinois Central railroad, says: "A friend of mine who had procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Alvey & List's drug store and used them in his family recommended them so highly that I gave a little girl of ours, 10 years of age, a course of the treatment. We had given her so much medicine for kidney weakness that she absolutely refused to take anything, but finally coaxing succeeded. Before she completed the use of two boxes we stopped giving her the remedy because she no longer required it."

the city, and advocate the extension of our present sanitary system by the addition of another district to embrace the western part of the city.

4th. We are unalterably opposed to the proposed constitutional amendment that provides for the return to the viva voce manner of voting, believing it to be a backward step and not in the interest of the people.

5th. We condemn the extravagant expenditures in the administration of our city government, brought about by the dilatory practice of postponement, and the employment of many useless party workers, and promise that all business of the city will be conducted with the strictest economy and that all useless officials will be dispensed with.

6th. Having before us constantly the evidences of advancement in both the commercial and civic world we recognize the necessity for the utmost care in the consideration of public measures, giving at all times an attentive hearing to the suggestions of progression.

The tendency of the times toward corporate investment of capital, and the extent of grants asked for by such institutions, would naturally suggest to our legislative bodies care as to the extent and effect of such grants and the enactment of such laws as will protect the interests of individual investors and the people at large, and also encourage and protect legitimate enterprises. We therefore are in favor of any practical plan whereby public utilities may be made cheaper, render better service.

COUNTY.

We, your committee, beg leave to report the following resolutions:

1st. We reaffirm our allegiance in the principles of the Republican party, and believing that our honorable president, Theodore Roosevelt, is the embodiment of American citizenship, take pride in endorsing his great accomplishment in bringing two warring nations to an amicable agreement, as well as the many other important acts of his administration.

2nd. We are in favor of an extension of the school year and the building of more and better school houses, thus giving to the children of the out-of-town people, equal facilities with those of the city.

3rd. We are in favor of graveling and extending all the roads of the county.

4th. We deplore the disgraceful condition of our county affairs, that were revealed by investigation of the state inspector, and the necessity for an indictment to be returned by the grand jury for the neglect of duty and violation of the law of one of our county officials. We invite the co-operation of all the voters of the county to aid us to prevent such occurrences and promise if elected to prevent them in the future.

5th. We are in favor of the continuation of the secret ballot manner of voting and believe that the present amendment to change same is the production of scheming politicians and in the interest of dishonest elections, therefore ask all voters who are honestly disposed to join with us to defeat the amendment.

THE CHURCHES WERE ALL WELL ATTENDED

Civic Righteousness Was Rev. Cheek's Theme Yesterday.

German Church Holds Reformation Services—Rev. McClain at First Christian.

THE SECOND BAPTIST REVIVAL.

Rev. John S. Cheek of the First Baptist church, preached last evening on "Civic Righteousness." Dr. Cheek is an eloquent and convincing speaker and was heard by a large congregation. He stressed the three main points: 1. What is Civic Righteousness? 2. Who are making and marring a city or state? 3. Some concluding remarks with a number of strong and telling points and illustrations. The concluding remarks were especially pertinent to Paducah's own municipal affairs and were most thoughtfully and gravely presented. Dr. Cheek also gave the remedies for the evils, including in this the work that can be done by the children, the women, the men in office and the men out of office. It was a timely sermon and will doubtless do much good work.

Rev. A. McClain, of Cincinnati, filled the pulpit of the First Christian church yesterday and was greeted by large congregations. Dr. McClain is a leading minister of this denomination and was for many years a missionary in foreign fields. He now devotes his time exclusively to the cause of missions. He preached two strong and forcible sermons yesterday and delighted all who heard him.

Dr. Pinkerton is now in Newcastle, Penn., a town of about 40,000 people, and reports a very good meeting in progress there. He will not return for several weeks yet.

The Southern Methodist churches in this city which includes Broadway, Trimble street, Third street and the City missions, are all busy bringing the year's work to a successful finish as next Sunday is the last of the conference year. Rev. J. H. Roberts, the presiding elder of the Paducah district, filled his final appointments for the year at the Trimble street and Third street Methodist churches yesterday, and tonight will hold the fourth quarterly conference business session at the Broadway Methodist church. Saturday closed the last quarterly conference work of the Paducah missions, held at Lone Oak. It is expected that all these churches will go to the annual conference on the 15th with the best of reports and all the assessments in full. None of the ministers has served his 4-year limit yet, so the congregations are not anticipating or desiring any change. It is most probable that all will be returned to their charges.

Rev. T. J. Newell filled his pulpit at Broadway yesterday morning and evening, preaching by request at the morning hour a forcible sermon on "The Wickedness of the Crucifixion of Christ."

Dr. Newell expects to have Bishop W. W. Duncan of South Carolina, who will preside at the Memphis annual conference at Mayfield to preach for him next Sunday.

It will be Bishop Duncan's first visit to Paducah and will be an event in Methodist circles.

Rev. William Bourquin of the Evangelical church on South Fifth street, began a series of special sermons last evening that are of vital interest to all. His theme last night was "What is a church for?" He will preach successively on "What is a Home for?" "What is a Sunday School for?" "What is Life For?" and "What is the Bible For?" Mr. Bourquin is very talented and is quite equal to meeting these broad questions very logically and convincingly.

Rev. C. P. Roney, of Wickliffe is assisting the Rev. E. H. Cunningham in a protracted meeting at the Second Baptist church. Mr. Roney preached yesterday morning and night very strong sermons, he is a very eloquent speaker. Much interest is being manifested and the attendance at both services yesterday was very large.

The ministers held an interesting meeting this morning, but transacted little beside routine business. A petition from the W. C. T. U. was received in regard to saloons in groceries and the ministers assured the workers of their sympathy and support.

No complete returns have yet been made of the city or county religious canvass. In the city work an effort is being made to see those who were away from home on the day of the census. The county reports are very slow, not more than one-tenth having been sent in.

Rev. C. E. Woodcock, of Louisville, preached at Fulton last night. It was his third visit to Fulton since he became bishop of this diocese.

It will be good news to the many admirers of Bishop Woodcock in this city to know that he will in February hold a mission in Paducah, and has already arranged with the Rev. D. C. Wright of Grace Episcopal church in regard to the program, time, etc. These missions are held frequently in Louisville, and large cities but is the first here in quite a number of years. In the hands of such live men as Mr. Wright and Bishop Woodcock it will be productive of great interest and good.

Special services in commemoration of the Reformation were held at the German Lutheran church on South Fourth street yesterday. Communion service was held at both the morning and evening hour, and Rev. A. C. Hiten preached at night on "Luther Contending for the Faith."

JOINS CIRCUIS.

Capt. H. Armstrong and Family Go to Alabama.

Captain H. Armstrong and family left this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for Moulton, Ala., to join the James Shelby circus and play in the band.

Capt. Armstrong has been owner of the 20th Century show boat but sold his boat to C. Orr and others, of Yazoo City, Miss., who had been connected with the Ringling shows. The boat will leave this afternoon for Memphis and lower Mississippi river cities.

Captain Armstrong and family, however will not remain with the boat, but went over the N. C. & St. L. directly to Alabama. During the several weeks stay in Paducah while the boat was being repaired, Capt. Armstrong and family made a great many friends who will regret to learn of their departure.

PAINFUL INJURY.

Mr. Leo Haag Slips in Bath Tub and Breaks His Nose.

Mr. Leo Haag, an employ at the wholesale whiskey house of Friedman Kellier & Co., fell in a bath tub at his home, at 1222 Broadway, Sunday morning and broke his nose. He is crippled and becoming overbalanced and fell striking his nose on the tub. The fracture was set by Dr. J. D. Robertson.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I am an independent candidate for coroner of McCracken county, and as I have been unable to get around and see my friends and other voters, I respectfully ask them to consider my candidacy before casting their votes. I have lived in Paducah all my life, and am perfectly familiar with the duties of office, having served for many years as coroner, and am willing and promise to do the best of my ability. M. NANCE

COLE'S ORIGINAL HOT BLAST=THE CLEAN STOVE

DUST PROOF

Cole's Original Hot Blast is the cleanest stove ever placed on the market. Our method of removing ashes shown by cut No. 1, is perfectly clean and overcomes the many objections to the ash pan used in other stoves. The elbow draft casting with its upward slant allows the empty coalhod to be set under the draft so that no ashes or coals can be spilled on the floor. Our patented dustless ash cover shown by illustration is furnished free with Nos. 122, 152, 182 and 198 stoves. It keeps down every particle of dust in removing ashes, a feature that will be appreciated by every tidy housekeeper.

The ash pans used in other stoves are too small to hold a full 24 hours' accumulation of ashes. They are usually over-filled when removed, and the ashes in the bottom of the stove are dragged out on the carpet, as shown by cut No. 2. You are all familiar with the ash pan method, and have, no doubt, gone through the process many times of spreading a newspaper or cloth under your stove every time the over-filled pan is removed.

The ash pan is not only dirty, but is a great evil in stove construction. It adds a door and joints which can be made only temporarily air-tight by the use of stove putty. These joints open after a few weeks' use, rendering ash pan stoves worthless as fire keepers. It makes them fuel-eaters rather than fuel-savers. The ash pan and the shield for guiding ashes into the pan, also prevent base heat.

Our method is the only clean way. The whisk broom, turkey wing and dust cloth are dispensed with. There are no joints to leak air, base heat is not retarded and Cole's Hot Blast is the cleanest stove, the best floor heater and the only stove in the world which can be guaranteed to remain always air-tight.

SMOKE PROOF

The feed door on this stove is guaranteed smoke proof and does away with the escape of smoke, soot and gas into the house. Side feed doors used on other stoves discharge a cloud of gas and soot-laden smoke into the house and scatter soot and ashes over the carpet when opened.

Another point: In feeding coal into a side feed door it has to be thrown into the stove, which usually results in scattering much of it over the floor. With our cleanly smoke proof feed door the coal is poured into the stove even to the dust in the bottom of the hod without a particle being spilled on the floor.

This clean and economical stove burns the gases which often escape into the rooms with other stoves. The annoyance and dirt from kindling new fires is dispensed with, as the rooms are heated up for two or three hours each morning with the fuel put in the night before and the fire is never out. COLE'S ORIGINAL HOT BLAST is the cleanest stove made and will more than save its cost in fuel each winter.

Cut No. 2 Shows the dirty ash pan method

Cut No. 1 Shows how Dustless Ash Cover is used—the modern method. (Patented)
